

Life at De Leeuwenhof

Posted On Nov 09, Posted by Daan & Yvonne van Leeuwen Boomkamp Category Deleeuwenhof Blog

Yvonne and I (Daan) love our life on “de leeuwenhof” as we still “grow” into South Africa and more specific into the guesthouse business.

Over the last few years we have met numerous interesting people, and quite a number have become real good friends. This is probably caused by the sharing of the thrill for adventure, and seeking new boundaries, literally. We are all "like minded people".

Our quest which led us to South Africa, has been quite rewarding. As former Europeans we try to adapt to the local way of life in Africa, and we try to deal with the matters at hand.

Some matters are quite easy, but some issues are much more complex to handle, and one has to “breathe the country” to understand. We will try to use this blog to give away a glimpse of what we experience and how we try to grow and deal with it. We hope you will enjoy it, and of course we would love you to give comments as well.

Tags: de leeuwenhof , guesthouse , adventure , South Africa